25X1X

1. There was no flying at the Wittstock (W 54/U 11) airfield on [REDACTED] 25X1 [REDACTED] The field was not occupied by an air unit. (1) The ranking officer at the field was a general whose office was in the headquarters building where the air force unit was previously quartered.

2. The hospital at the field was occupied by about 50 patients, most of whom were suffering from bad colds. The chief physician of the hospital was Major Obertas, (fnu), who was associated with [REDACTED] During the period of observation, patients at the 25X1C hospital were from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] belonged to soldiers from Techlin-Laerz (W 54/U 53), [REDACTED] belonged to a soldier of the radio installation which was still housed in the Red Mill, and [REDACTED] 25X1C [REDACTED] belonged to members of the drivers' school at the field. (2)

3. The radar set with two trucks was at the location previously reported.
It was in operation. (3) The two trucks were interconnected by a telephone cable. Two single-strand telephone wires on poles led from one of the trucks to the former commander's building in which the central telephone exchange of the airfield was housed.

4. [REDACTED] another radar set was set up at the entrance to the field, just south of the IVD building. The set had its lower section set into the ground and was camouflaged with small trees. The set was not seen in operation, nor was an engine noise heard. Ten meters from the set was a temporary wooden building, dug into the ground. Five soldiers wearing black-bordered, blue epaulets were seen in it. Two single-strand telephone cables, supported by masts, led from this set to the central telephone exchange. (4)
